RE: Former Guelph Correctional Centre - 785 York Road, Guelph

Infrastructure Ontario, on behalf of the Ministry of Government and Consumer Services, would like to request that the City of Guelph Designate the property located at 785 York Road, Guelph, known as the former Guelph Correctional Centre, under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act. The purpose of the designation request is to recognize the cultural heritage value of the property and to support any future disposition plans by providing long term heritage protections for the identified provincially significant heritage attributes of the property.

If you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.
