

Couling Architectural Inventory: Update

Heritage Guelph

October 12, 2021

Purpose

To conduct research and evaluate the cultural heritage values of properties within Exhibition Park Cultural Heritage Landscape (CHL) that are in the Couling Architectural Inventory.

Findings from this study will guide recommendations made to Council regarding the listing of Couling Architectural Inventory properties into the heritage register.

Methodology and Approach

1. Conduct "virtual" site visits and collect secondary information from GIS, AMANDA and archival data

ARCHITECTURAL INVENTORY		BLOCK No.	PAGE
		ITEM.
LOCATION	12 CENTRAL
ARCHITECT	-
CONTRACTOR	-
ORIGINAL OWNER	Stanley Blair
ORIGINAL USE	single family dwelling
DATE OF CONSTRUCTION	1922-23
BUILDING MATERIAL	red brick
SIGNIFICANCE	no

2. Collect data records from the Couling Inventory

Methodology and Approach

12 Central St

Address	Current Heritage Status	Determination of Cultural Heritage Value based on Criteria from Ontario Regulation 9/06
		Design/Physical Value	Historical/Associative Value	Contextual Value
12 Central St	Couling Inventory	D1		C1

3. Compare Couling Inventory property images to current photographs made available through Google Street view

4. Compile the data in Excel and develop analysis of each property's physical/design value and contextual value according to O.Reg. 9/06

Next Steps

Expand research to two other CHLs in Guelph:
Guelph Collegiate CHL and Waterloo Avenue CHL.
Updated progress will be conveyed when possible.

Findings from this research will be useful when recommending to Council which Couling Architectural Inventory properties to include in the expansion of the heritage register.

Thank you!
