

Intergovernmental Consultation

Expanding administrative penalties for environmental contraventions

Ministry/Department

Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks

Consultation Deadline

Sunday, March 13, 2022

Summary

The Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks is proposing regulations that would allow the use of administrative penalties ("penalties") for environmental contraventions.

The proposed new framework would provide a single consistent approach for applying penalties across the ministry's compliance and enforcement activities.

Proposed Form of Input

City staff will be preparing a submission to the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks.

Rationale

The City of Guelph has an interest in contributing to policy making that protects the environment.
