

I am writing in support of the implementation of the Emma to Earl street pedestrian and cycling bridge.

As a newer resident of the city I try as much as possible to walk to do my errands rather than take a car. However to either bike or walk along Speedvale Avenue to cross the river is not pleasant, not convenient and at the bridge it does feel safe.

Thank you for considering my opinion.

Sandra McKinnon