Dear Mayor Guthrie,

The County of Wellington is pleased to support the recommendation being made to Guelph City Council by Heritage Planning staff and the Heritage Guelph committee that Council issue a notice of intention to designate the former Isolation Hospital at 65 Delhi Street under Part IV, section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act.

The County of Wellington is proud to include 65 Delhi Street as one of several prominent heritage properties within the city including the Wellington County Court House and Jail on Woolwich Street as well as the County Solicitor's Building and Crown Attorney's Office on Douglas Street. The County is committed to the stewardship of this important built heritage resource and to achieving conservation of the historic Isolation Hospital through rehabilitation.

Regards,
