

Provincial and Federal Consultation Alert

Proposed amendments to Ontario Regulation 422/17 under the Ontario Immigration Act

Ministry

Economic Development, Job Creation and Trade

Consultation Deadline

March 2, 2020

Summary

A new regulatory proposal has been posted under the Ontario Immigration Act, proposing to expand occupation eligibility rules under the Ontario Immigrant Nominee Program, specifically in manufacturing-related positions located outside of the Greater Toronto Area, and to remove the settlement funds requirement.

Proposed Form of Input

E-mail comments to ontarionominee@ontario.ca.

Rationale

The Guelph-Wellington Local Immigration Partnership (LIP) is working to strengthen local capacity to attract newcomers and improve integration outcomes. This City-hosted coalition can provide feedback on the regulatory proposal that reflects the needs of immigrants to our community and the local labour market.
