

Heritage Staff Recommendations for 2024 Part IV Designation Priorities

Address; Historic Name	Year Built	Construction and/or Cladding Material	Type of Structure	Architectural Style	Notes
18 Alma St N	c. 1865	Stone	Residential	Neo-classical vernacular	Representative/early working-class stone cottage
250 Arboretum Rd, "Arboretum Centre"	c. 1973	Concrete/wood cladding	Institutional	Modern	Representative example of modern architecture
9 Arthur St N, "Yankee Cottage"	c. 1847	Plaster	Residential	Ontario Cottage	Yankee cottage; significant early residence; Associated with David Kennedy
27 Audrey Ave	c. 1855	Stone	Residential	Greek Revival	Early residence; located in area with few designations
94 Bagot St	c. 1870	Wood frame/Vinyl siding	Residential/Barn	Functional Neo-classical	Extant Barn
7 Balsarroch Pl	c. 1850	Stone	Residential	Neo-classical vernacular	Early residence; located in area with few designations
37 Christie Ln, "D.M. Rutherford Conservatory"	c. 1930	Iron/glass	Institutional	Picturesque	A unique building in the City; Representative example of Picturesque architecture; perceived risk
33 Dormie Lane	c. 1965	Brick	Residential	Modern	Representative Modern residence.

					Frank Sinatra is said to have visited
254 Edinburgh Rd S	c. 1860	Stone	Residential	Neo-classical vernacular	Representative Gothic Revival; located in area with few designations
170 Emma St	c. 1960	Brick/siding	Residential	Modern	Representative post-modern residence
39 Emslie St	c. 1850	Stone	Residential	Neo-classical vernacular	Representative working-class cottage
30/32 Eramosa Rd	c. 1855	Stone	Residential/Industrial	Neo-classical vernacular	Early Foundry; rumoured to have made cannon balls for the Confederacy during Civil War; associated with
59/61 Essex St	c. 1850	Stone	Residential	Neo-classical vernacular	Representative stone semi-detached working-class residence
135 Exhibition St, "Victory Public School"	c. 1919	Red Brick with stone accents	School	Neo-classical	Victory Public School; Representative neo-classical; historical association with WW1
28 Ferndale Dr	c. 1840	Stone	Residential	Neo-classical vernacular	Very early stone residence, in location without many designations
67 Foster Ave	c. 1895	Red brick	Residential	Queen Anne Revival	Unique tower; corner location

19 Fountain St W	c. 1845	Red/yellow brick and stone	Residential	Neo-classical vernacular	Early residence, unique combination of red/yellow brick and stone
18 Gladstone Ave	c. 1856	Stone	Residential	Neo-classical vernacular	Early stone residence; located in area with few designations
136 Glasgow St N "Gowdy Mansion"	c. 1876	Brick with stone accents	Residential	Italianate	Gowdy mansion, designed by John Hall Jr.
198 Glasgow St N	c. 1877	Painted brick	Residential	Ontario Cottage	Representative Ontario Cottage; Very intact
215 Glasgow St N	c. 1912	Brown Brick/plaster	Residential	Arts and Crafts	Representative Arts and Crafts
15 Gordon St	c. 1855	Stone	Commercial	Neo-classical vernacular	Early stone commercial building
72 Gordon St	c. 1930	Red brick	Industrial - Bakery	Modern functional	Unique architecture, last industrial building in neighbourhood
29/31 Grange St, "Horseman House"	c. 1880	Stone	Residential	Gothic Revival	Horseman's House; Representative stone gothic revival mansion
140 Grange St, "Maple Bank"	c. 1865	Stone	Residential	Gothic Revival	Maple Bank; Associated with William Stevenson
25 Harcourt Dr, "Summerhill"	c. 1850	Stone	Residential	Neo-classical vernacular	Summerhill; Representative Georgian; Associated with Col Saunders, Lucy

					Sutherland, Elinor Sutherland
22 James St E, "Toronto Suburban Railway Substation"	c. 1900	Painted Brick	Infrastructure	Edwardian neo-classical	Toronto Suburban Railway power station; only built heritage resource remaining from TSR
26 Kron Dr	c. 1850	Stone	Residential	Neo-classical vernacular	1850 farmhouse; located in area with few designations
99 Maltby Rd W	c. 1830	Log (likely)	Residential	Neo-classical vernacular	Suspected log construction; Possibly one of the oldest houses in the City
35-41 Meadowview Ave, "Meadowview"	c. 1855-1858	Stone	Residential	Italianate	Associated with David Kennedy; Unique architecture; Street is named after this property
14 Mitchell St	c. 1875	Stone	Residential	Late Italianate	Very intact; Suspected birthplace of Kenneth MacAllister, a Second World War officer executed by the Gestapo
14 Neeve St; Barn, "Law House"	c. 1875	Stone	Residential	Neo-classical vernacular	Early Stone House; Associated with Law Family; Barn intact
35 Niska Rd, "Patrick Hanlon Farmhouse"	c. 1870	Stone	Residential	Neo-classical vernacular	Patrick Hanlon Farmhouse; Intact house, stable, bank barn

123 Norfolk St, "Lornewood"	c. 1855	Brick	Residential	Italianate	Representative Italianate; Associated with Charles Raymond; Designed by prominent architect Cornelius Soule
135-159 Oxford St	c. 1886	Stone	Industrial	Neo-classical vernacular functional	Large Victorian Factories
18 Paisley St	c. 1870	Stone	Residential	Ontario Cottage	Paisley Memorial Methodist Church manse (church no longer exists)
52/54/56 Paisley St	c. 1865	Stone	Residential	Neo-classical vernacular	Representative vernacular stone row house
64 Queen St	c. 1912	Plaster	Residential	Arts and Crafts	Representative Arts and Crafts; Perceived risk
67 Queen St, "Wyoming"	c. 1866, 1880	Stone	Residential	Second Empire	Representative Second Empire; Associated with J.W. Lyon; Known as "Wyoming"
85 Queen St, "Gilnockie"	c. 1874	Stone	Residential	Gothic Revival	Known as Gilnockie; Supposedly built from stones salvaged from St George's Church; Associated with Reverend Torrance

75 Suffolk St W	c. 1860, 1875	Stone	Commercial	Neo-classical vernacular	Representative example of stone Victorian commercial architecture; very intact
168 Waterloo Ave	c. 1859-1860	Stone	Residential	Ontario Cottage; Neo-classical	Fine masonry, maybe Matthew Bell
3 Watson Rd S, "School Section 1"	c. 1873	Stone	Educational	Italianate	Early stone school; School Section #1; In area with few designations
19 Woodycrest Dr, "Kingsmill"	c. 1855	Stone	Residential	Italianate	Representative example of Italianate architecture; Associated with Admiral Charles Kingsmill, founding director of the Royal Canadian Navy
208-210 Woolwich St	c. 1855	Red/Yellow Brick	Commercial	Neo-classical vernacular	Representative Victorian commercial building; Early use of red and yellow brick; extant coach house
328-332 Woolwich St, "Chubb Terrace"	c. 1876	Red brick and stone	Residential	Gothic Revival	"Chubb Terrace;" Representative Victorian row housing; Very fine

					stonework; very intact
385 Woolwich St, "St James School"	c. 1887	Stone	Educational	Jacobean Revival	St James School; One of few extant stone schools in City
430/432 Woolwich St	c. 1870	Yellow Brick	Residential	Italianate	Representative Italianate semi-detached; One of few belvederes in City
11 Yeadon Dr	c. 1865	Stone	Residential	Gothic Revival	Early stone house; located in area with few designations
32 Yorkshire Rd N	c. 1890	Yellow Brick	Residential	Queen Anne Revival	Representative Queen Anne Revival; Very intact; Includes barn in rear yard