

I am in full support of Councilor Carons and the OEB decision to end the gas pipeline subsidy to corporations such as Enbridge.

Considering the damage to the environment we as a nation can no longer support the use of fossil fuels.

If gas line infrastructure has to be installed ( consider the alternatives) then the cost must be borne by the gas companies and the developers and not loaded onto existing house holders .

John Steggles