

Attachments 2 – Current Photographs

*All photos were taken on February 20th by Robert Flewelling, Heritage Research Assistant.

Figure 1: 14 Neeve Street stone house and garage taken from corner of Neeve and Fountain Street.

Figure 2: Neeve Street stone house and garage taken from corner of Neeve and Fountain Street.

Figure 3: Photo of 14 Neeve Street garage. Stone walls, vinyl fascia, and a small window below the peak of a shingle roof.

Figure 4 Photo 14 Neeve Street driveway, garage, barn, and stone house.

Figure 5 Photo of 14 Neeve taken from opposite side of Neeve Street.

Figure 6: Photo of 14 Neeve taken from opposite side of Neeve Street.

Figure 7: Photo of 14 Neeve Street Neeve Street.

Figure 8: Photo of 14 Neeve barn taken from driveway on Surrey Street. Mixed materials for siding with red/rusting tin roof. Large sliding door on right side.

Figure 9: Photo of 14 Neeve Street barn

Figure 10: East facade of 14 Neeve Street barn. Stone foundation is built into the hill.

Figure 11: View of 14 Neeve Street barn from hill behind property. Tin roof and board and batten siding, with a stone chimney visible on right corner, partially obscured by trees.

Figure 12 View of 14 Neeve Street barn

Figure 13 View of 14 Neeve Street barn and rear of stone house

Figure 14: View of 14 Neeve Street barn and stone house through a construction fence. Cedar trees on left of photo, a small green veranda covers rear entrance to stone house.

Figure 15: 14 Neeve Street barn and garage, with close view of mixed material siding, foundation, and stone facade.

Figure 16: 14 Neeve Street barn and garage, with close view of mixed material siding, foundation, and stone facade.

Figure 17: Photo of Neeve Street barn, laneway, and red brick house on Surrey (that was built by Francis Law, the original owner of 14 Neeve Street).

Figure 18: 14 Neeve Street and neighboring stone house, likely built around the same time.

Figure 19: Corner of Neeve and Surrey Street, taken from Google Street View. Note that the red brick buildings on the right were built by Francis Law shortly before his death.