The Municipality of Puslinch
July 4th 1904.

Pursuant to adjournment, the Council met in the Council Room, at Aberfoyle, on Monday July 4th, at 1:00 o' clock p.m. The members were all present, the Reeve in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read and sustained.

1. At their first meeting after the sudden decease of James Scott, at the City of Guelph, on Saturday May 28th, in his sixty-second year, the Council members desire to record their high esteem of his private and public life. Mr. Scott was cast upon his own resources in his early youth, and he, together with his sister, Isabella, redeemed the old homestead and left it highly cultivated and improved. Being industrious, upright, and honest in his private life, he took a lively, active interest in public affairs, and served his fellow citizens as School Trustee, Assessor, Councillor, Reeve, County Councillor, and Secretary of the Township Fire Insurance Company. His decease creates a vacancy in the public life of the county, deeply, sincerely, and generally deplored by the citizens.

SCOTT JAMES
Sudden Death Comes to Councillor James Scott of Puslinch
Mr. Scott had come into Guelph as usual this morning, accompanied by his sister. While walking along the street about 11:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 28, 1904, he was seized with a sudden illness and was accompanied by Major G. B. Hood to the office of Dr. Lindsay. The doctor was not home but Mr. Scott was shown into the waiting room, where Major Hood left him. Shortly after, Miss Lindsay heard a sound in the waiting room and found Mr. Scott in a convulsion. She immediately summoned Dr. K. McKinnon and Mr. A. Stewart. Dr. McKinnon attempted artificial respiration but it was ineffectual. Mr. Scott had not been well for a considerable time, having a very bad cough and being apparently a sick man. Mr. Scott had been one of the most prominent and active public men of the Township of Puslinch for many years. His start in public life was as assessor of Puslinch, to which position he was appointed in 1873. A few years later, he was elected to council. He has been deputy reeve and reeve of the township, secretary of the Agricultural Society and secretary of the Puslinch Mutual Fire Insurance Co. He was elected to the County Council in 1908. He was a breeder and exhibitor of Southdown sheep. He took an active interest in the affairs of the Puslinch Farmers' Club. For a number of years, he was a school trustee of school section #4. He was a charter member of the Aberfoyle Independent Order of Foresters and took a prominent part in its affairs. The Tovell undertakers have taken his body to his home, lot 14, concession 7 on the Brock Road, for the funeral. Mr. Scott's father was one of the very early settlers in Puslinch, having come in 1834 from Peeblesshire, Scotland with the late Thomas Todd, to whose sister he was married three years later. His father built the first stone house in the township early in the 1840's on the lot to which Mr. Scott succeeded. His father died in 1852 and his mother twenty years later. Thomas, the eldest of the family went to St. Paul, MN thirty years ago, where he carries on a large carriage business but is presently in California for the benefit of his health. James was the second son and remained on the farm all his life. Walter, the third son, left the township about twenty years ago and is a locomotive engineer on the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba Railway. His sisters are Jane of St. Joseph, MO, widow of Thomas McKillop; Isabella at home; and Christina of Woodstock, widow of Robert Earron, formerly of Guelph. Mr. Scott was born in 1842 and was in his 62nd year. He was never married. His sister, Isabella, also unmarried, remained on the farm with him all her life. In the face of a cold driving rain from the east, upwards of two hundred friends assembled at the homestead for the funeral. The Warden and County Council attended in a body and the Liberal Association of South Wellington sent a deputation headed by Hugh Guthrie, M.P. and A. W. Tyson, president of the association. There were flowers from the County Council, the Sisters of St. Joseph and the Independent Order of Foresters. The service was conducted by Rev. R. J. M. Glassford. Pallbearers: Blair and Pelham Falconbridge; William and Thomas Amos; Joseph Smith and Christopher McBeath. Interment Crown Cemetery.

SCOTT, ISABELLA
Sudden Death
Miss Isabella Scott, sister of James Scott, the well known County Commissioner, who dropped on Douglas Street a couple of years ago and almost instantly expired, of Puslinch, near Aberfoyle, on Monday, 5th March 1906, aged 63 years and 3 months. She also had a sudden call, as Saturday around noon she was stricken with paralysis. For a time, she seemed to rally somewhat but then experienced a second attack and never recovered consciousness. Her sister, Mrs. Earron arrived on Saturday evening to be present at her bedside. Since the death of her brother, she has managed the farm with the assistance of her nephew, James Earron. She belonged to one of the pioneer families of Puslinch. The Scott family came in 1834. Surviving are Thomas Scott of St. Paul, Minnesota; Walter of Melrose, Minnesota; Mrs. J. McKillop of St. Joseph, Missouri; and Mrs. Robert Earron of Woodstock. She was of a kindly disposition and very highly respected. She was a staunch Presbyterian and attended Dr. Torrance's church until it dissolved, after which she joined Chalmers Church in Guelph. She was born in the same house in which she died, which if not the first stone house, was one of the first ever built in Puslinch. The funeral, from her residence to Crown Cemetery on March 7^t, was largely attended. Rev. R. J. M. Glassford conducted the service. Pallbearers: Thomas Amos, W. Amos, C. McBeath, John A. Cockburn, H. Hammersley and B. Falconbridge.

SCOTT, WILLIAM (d.), of Puslinch, was b. in Selkirk, Scot., 1804, d. 1851, at the age of 47. He came first to Galt and afterwards to Puslinch, settling on lot 15, con. 7. At that time the country was all bush, and he had to follow the "blazed" path to his place. There were no roads cut out, bears and wolves were plentiful, and made night hideous with their howling. He cleared the farm, and there lived until his death. His wife survived him about sixteen years. He was a Presbyterian, and Elder in Dr. Torrance's church for years. In politics he was a Reformer, and was one of the early Councillors of Puslinch. He m. in Guelph, Christina Todd, who was b. in Peebles, Scot. Issue: Thomas, Jean, James, Isabella, Mrs. John Kelly, Walter, Mrs. Robert Earon, set. in Woodstock. Thomas, set. in St. Paul; Jean, m. Thomas McKellop, set. in St. Joseph, Mis.; Walter, m. Jean McGregor, set. in U.S.; James, and Isabella, remained on the homestead in Puslinch. James was a leading man in the township, and held the office of Councillor, Reeve, and at the time of his death in 1904, was County Commissioner. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, and a Reformer in politics. He willed the farm to James R. Earon, his nephew, reserving a life lease to his sister, Isabella Scott. Mr. Earon carries on mixed farming, making a specialty of thoroughbred Southdown sheep, and his farm is in a fine state of cultivation.

W.F. MacKenzie's history of Puslinch Township, as published in the Guelph Mercury in 1907, notes that a "Thomas Todd came to Puslinch with his father in 1832 and settled on Lot 16, west of the Brock Road. He married Mary, daughter of Peter McBeath" and they had several children. Thomas Todd first shows up on Puslinch Township census and assessments records in 1837 where he is listed as the farmer of the Rear of Lot 15, Concession 7, a 100 acre property of which 10 acres had been cleared of trees. He is not, however, listed as resident on that land, as no household information was included. By the next year, the 1838 census and assessment lists William Scott as having taken over the farm at Lot 15, Concession 7, of which no more than 10 acres had been cleared, but Scott was living there with a woman, presumably his wife, and they had three cattle.

In 1838 Thomas Todd was listed on a neighbouring property at Lot 16, Concession 8, of which 20 acres were cleared. Todd was resident there, living with one male under the age of sixteen, and they had a few oxen and cows. In November of 1838, Todd would receive an application ticket for the Rear part of Lot 23, Concession 7, and in 1845, the front part of Lot 26, Concession 8. Thomas Todd's tombstone in Crown Cemetery notes his birth ca. 1794 and death in 1848. This would make him the right age to be the eldest son of Thomas Todd (born 1767) of Peebles, whose will is listed below. If that is the case, then William Scott's wife, Christina Todd, may be the "Christian Todd" listed in Thomas Sr.'s will. If this is the case, and the author of the will did in fact come to Canada with some of his children, it would appear that Thomas Todd Sr. passed away at some point prior to 1837.
