

Affordability suggestion:

Stop wasting taxpayer money on frivolous projects, trim down the fat in every department and let the market decide for itself without your interference, which these days resembles Communism more than it does a Free Market Economy.

Sincerely,

Jeff Harvey