Memo message

Introducing Kayla Besse as the interim staff that liaises with the AAC.

Kayla brings extensive accessibility-related experience across the fields of performing arts, higher education, and policy development. She most recently worked as the Accessibility Coordinator at the Stratford Festival theatre, and prior to this, at the Tangled Art Gallery in Toronto, as well as the University of Guelph. As a disabled person herself, she looks forward to working and learning with you all.

Please help us welcome Kayla.
