

To whom it may concern.

I live in an area that has a traffic enforcement camera. The way it is set up is pretty useless. It is blocked by buses during the most crucial part of the day. Barely covers any of the road in front of the school. This isn't about safety. It's about money. Do better Guelph.

Joel Pembleton