

Its fine to raise our taxes but the city can't even repair residential street in the north, let alone main streets(Speedvale and Nicklin) I witnessed "summer students" going around and marking the sidewalks with yellow paint, so someone can come a level them. This has been going on for three years now, and no repairs done.

Increase our taxes, but at least do something with it!

Bruce Hall.