

Hello,

I'm interested in preserving the Yorklands site. If I understand the new development plans put forward by the city, residential development plans have been included without public comment, or within a larger plan of conservation. I support Yorklands green hub and they too are concerned. Please consider bringing them and other concerned citizens to the table before we make plans to give out the land to developers.

Thank you
Brad Sinclair