

Good morning,

It is my understanding that despite a number of calls for the OR conservation plan to be amended to exclude references to residential use, the Plan has yet to be amended.

The Conservation Plan needs to avoid prescribing future land use; that's the job of zoning and planning. I am writing to council to ask you to fix the plan properly by removing references to residential use of the lands.

Sincerely,

Miranda Corman and Fab Piovesan